Teo Coron aka H7 is a French DJ and producer based in Berlin, crafting a bold evolution from hard house into darker, more textured grooves. His sound channels raw emotion through powerful, evolving soundscapes, blurring the lines between intensity and introspection while keeping a firm focus on the dancefloor. Having found his voice within Berlin's underground, he draws on the city's raw energy and diverse club culture to shape a distinctive musical identity.

With experience performing at venues such as Aeden, Zur Klappe, Studio 1111, Remise and Sensorium, he has honed a high-impact approach behind the decks, balancing hypnotic build-ups with incisive, percussive drops.

A member of the Korrupt Berlin collective, he is driven by a deep commitment to sonic experimentation, weaving hypnotic rhythms and atmospheric layers into sets and productions that resonate beyond the club. Always aiming to push underground culture forward, his work embodies a sound that feels both deeply personal and sharply in tune with the current electronic landscape.
